DIRECTOR'S NOTE

"You're only given a little spark of madness. You mustn't lose it." - Robin Williams.

I often quote this line at the end of my bios when I'm involved in theatre productions. After all, one must be a bit mad to pursue a life in the theatre, and this quote reminds us that it is okay, and that we should in fact strive to hold on to it. For you see, in the theatre one might find themselves watching a story about ogres and fairytale creatures, giants in the sky, phantoms in opera houses, tales of daring knights on a quest for a holy grail, or an orphan who finds himself whisked away into a world of magic he never knew existed.

We come to the theatre to escape into this wonderful madness for a couple of hours. Worlds where magic is real, dragons exist, puppets run rampant, ghosts haunt the bathroom, and the spirit of Christmas can bring together the fiercest of foes. This lovingly crafted parody, while a comedy, has some true depth and heart at its core. A heartwarming tale of longing, friendship, reconnection, forgiveness, and family.

I hope you enjoy this production, and may this be "The Most Magical Time" for you and yours.

CREW BIOGRAPHIES

COLTON WARD (Director) - Colton is very excited to be directing his very first show! He has been seen numerous times on the stage here at the Zig, with the last production being Baskerville. Now it's his turn to direct! The Zig has always been a venue that has provided him with many wonderful performance opportunities and now the chance to be on the other side of the table. "Thank you to the production team here at the Zig for taking a chance on me and letting me explore this new, fun area of theatre. Thank you for all your patience, guidance, and collaborative ideas." He would also like to thank his family, his partner, and his amazing stage manager!

JOSH CURTIS (Stage Manager/Lighting Tech) - Josh has appeared on the Ziegfeld stage as a famous sidekick (Dr. Watson in "Baskerville") and a terrible father (Daddy Murphy in "Bright Star"), but is humbled, excited, and a little bit scared to take on the role of Stage Manager. He is grateful for Colton's trust, Becky's guidance, Gerard's assistance, the Reis family's adoption, the Parry family friendship, and for the "Ziegfeld School of Witchcraft and Wizardry's" faith in him. He also thanks Natalie for introducing him to all of the above. While Harry Potter may be fictional, the "magic" of the holiday season, and those who share its tales, is very real, and lights up the world better than any Lumos charm.

COLTON WARD (Choreographer) - Not only was this show his directorial debut, it was also the first full show he was able to choreograph! Though Fairly isn't the danciest of shows, it does provide for a bit of fun choreographed movement and moments to show off a bit for the actors. Colton has trained in Jazz, Modern, Musical Theatre, Ballroom, Tap, and Musical Theatre style dance for the past 11 years.

ALEK BURDEN (Light Design) - Alek Burden is an Ogden based lighting designer who is happy to return for yet another show with the Zig.

MORGAN PARRY (Music Director) - Morgan is thrilled to be back and working on a show! She loves theatre and has fun music directing.

EB MADSON (Props Design/Set Dressing) - Eb is the artistic director of the Zig and often acts & directs here too. He also does a lot of the prop design for the shows. He holds a MFA from Ohio University and is also an alumnist of the University of Utah.

REBECCA KNOWLES (Projection/Sound Design) - For the second year in a row, Becky provided the Projection and Sound Design. Recent design credits include BrightStar (2021) and Spamalot (2021). With other stage/show management credits including her work with Hunt Mysteries LLC, The Natural History Museum of Utah, and most recently as Production Manager for The Zig's 2018-2021 seasons.

GERARD HOWELLS (Sound Tech-Ogden) - Gerard can't quite believe he's been back at The Zig for a year! Fairly Potter is an awesome tradition to be a part of and it's full of wonderful talent this year. Ravenclaw for life!
